Dear Parents and Carers,

Reference: The ongoing health of all children

The individual and whole school attendance of children at Manor Court is excellent and thankfully our children are generally fit and healthy. It has also been a success that we have had to shut a limited number of class bubbles through this academic year.

Cases of Coronavirus in South Somerset are still not fully levelling off and in Chard there has been a surge in confirmed cases in the past week. This has led to us being extra vigilant and cautious again. We are sure that all parents will acknowledge how frustrating last minute class bubble closures were for everyone and how difficult it could be to make last minute childcare arrangements for the ten days in which children would have to isolate.

We please ask parents to consider how well their child is before sending them into school. If they are under the weather, we would appreciate if you do not send them into school and keep them at home as a precaution. We have also asked staff to be extra careful with sickness within class and send children home if they display any symptoms of being unwell. We appreciate that this may be inconvenient but know that this will be less inconvenient than having to send whole classes home to isolate.

We thank you in advance for your understanding and support.

Yours sincerely
