Dear Parents and Carers,

Reference: 'An Evening of Song & Dance'

Rehearsals for our Summer Show - 'An Evening of Song & Dance' - are underway and we are excited to be preparing to perform to a live audience again. The event will showcase our pupils' talents in singing (in English and Portuguese) and a variety of dance styles from the Charleston to Funk. All Pupils from Foundation Stage to Year 6 will perform, with one class from each year group performing on each night.

If your child is an Arts Councillor, a member of Choir, Dance Club, Drama Club or the Cheerleading Team (or all five!), we would like them to perform on both nights.

We would like all pupils to wear black school trousers/shorts/skirt/leggings and a coloured top. The top does not need to be plain; it could be patterned, striped, spotty or have a motif on it, as long as the main colour is the one for their year group and it is appropriate to wear for a school event. If your child is in Dance Club, Drama Club or the Cheerleading Team, separate information will be sent home about what they are required to wear.

Red top - Foundation Stage, Year 1 and Year 6

Blue top – Year 2, Year 3, Year 4 and Year 5

Both shows will be at Holyrood School, starting at 6:00pm, and will end at approximately 8:00pm. Foundation children can be collected during the interval if you feel the whole evening will be too long.

Tuesday 27th June:
