VE DAY CELEBRATION - FRIDAY 8TH MAY

Dear Parents/Carers,

As you know, the country will be celebrating the 75th anniversary of VE day on Friday 8th May 2020.

Before lockdown and school closures were enforced, we had been planning a celebration 'street' party in the playground for all the children the day before the Bank Holiday. Sadly, we are no longer able to do this but would still like to mark the occasion and for the children to join in.

We are inviting children to hold their own 'street' party at home with members of their household. They can use any room in the house or garden with your permission. If they would like to decorate their tables, blankets or rooms in a wartime style then that would be fabulous but there is no need to purchase special decorations, please make do with whatever is in the home already or maybe they could make and decorate some paper bunting.

We also thought it would be fun if the children tried out some wartime recipes, they can research their own or try one of those on the attached wartime recipe sheet. Again, this is just an idea for them to be creative with whatever is in the food cupboards – just like people did during the war!

If you are able to have your very own party, please do take pictures and email them to the school office email; office@manorcourt.ppat365.org. We will be making a collage of all the photos to display in the hall to commemorate the occasion in these exceptional times.

We hope you will want to celebrate with us and look forward to seeing all your lovely photos.

Yours sincerely,

Mr L Talmage
Head teacher
