Multicultural Day – Video Permission

Dear Parents and Carers,

As you will already be aware, our annual Multicultural Day is taking place on Friday 24th April. As part of that day, Nightingales will be learning all about China.

Miss Langdown's brother teaches at Beanstalk International Bilingual School (BIBS) in Beijing, China. We thought that it would be a fantastic opportunity to have some of our children ask questions about China, to Mr Langdown's class via video message. Unfortunately, a live video call would not work due to the time difference. The plan is to send our videos and have received video responses from the children in Beijing to show our children in Nightingales on Multicultural Day.

If you are happy for your child to be filmed asking a question to the children at BIBS in Beijing, and have these recordings sent, please give your permission on ParentPay by Wednesday 1st April, allowing us time to film and send the questions, enabling responses by Multicultural Day. The videos will be viewed and then deleted following a response.

Thank you for your continued support.

Best wishes,

H Spittel
